

HOMWORK CONTRACT

This contract is an agreement between child, parents, and the Peirce Extended Day Program teachers to support the student in doing his/her homework. The student agrees to inform teachers whether or not they have homework to complete. The teachers agree to provide a reasonably quiet space for the student and to schedule at least one homework period per day and to inform parents if the contract is not working out. The parent agrees to encourage his/her child to keep to the terms of the contract and to inform the teachers if the contract is not working out.
